GRANTED. SO ORDERED.

Mary Kay Vyskocil
United States District Judge

Re: Lonstein Law Office P.C. et al. v. Evanston Ins.
Co. et al., No. 20-cv-9712-MKV

Dear Judge Vyskocil:

I write on behalf of my client, Defendant AT&T Services, Inc. (AT&T) to request an extension of time for the parties to file their briefing in connection with AT&T's motion to compel arbitration. In its June 8, 2021 Scheduling Order, the Court set due dates as follows:

- Motion to Compel Arbitration due June 18, 2021
- Opposition due June 30, 2021
- Reply due July 7, 2021

See ECF #40. The extension is requested because of preexisting briefing and hearing obligations in other matters and the need for sufficient opportunity for the client to review the briefs. After conferring with Plaintiffs' counsel (who also request additional time to file their opposition), the parties agreed to request that the Court adopt the following schedule that also takes into account the July 4 holiday, during which lawyers for both sides have planned to be on vacation:

- Motion to Compel Arbitration due July 6, 2021
- Opposition due July 28, 2021
- Reply due August 10, 2021

The parties have not previously requested any extension with respect to this motion. This extension will not affect any other scheduled dates. For the foregoing reasons, AT&T respectfully requests that the Court adopt the modified briefing schedule. Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

/s Archis A. Parasharami
